INVITATION

We feel great pleasure to inform you that the Jaipur National University, Jaipur is organizing an International Conference on “Role of Microbes in Industrial Revolution” on 28-29 March, 2018 at the School of Life Sciences, Jaipur National University, Jaipur. The conference invites scientists, faculty members, teachers, professionals, research scholars, students, and others who are involved in practices and research areas related to Life Sciences, Agricultural and all applied biosciences. Delegates may also attend the Conference without presenting their papers. The Conference will provide a platform to enrich and share the knowledge and expertise in the area of microbial world and their role in industrial revolution. We on the behalf of the organizing committee look forward to welcome you at the School of Life Sciences, JNU, Jaipur. Your participation will enable us make this Conference a grand success.

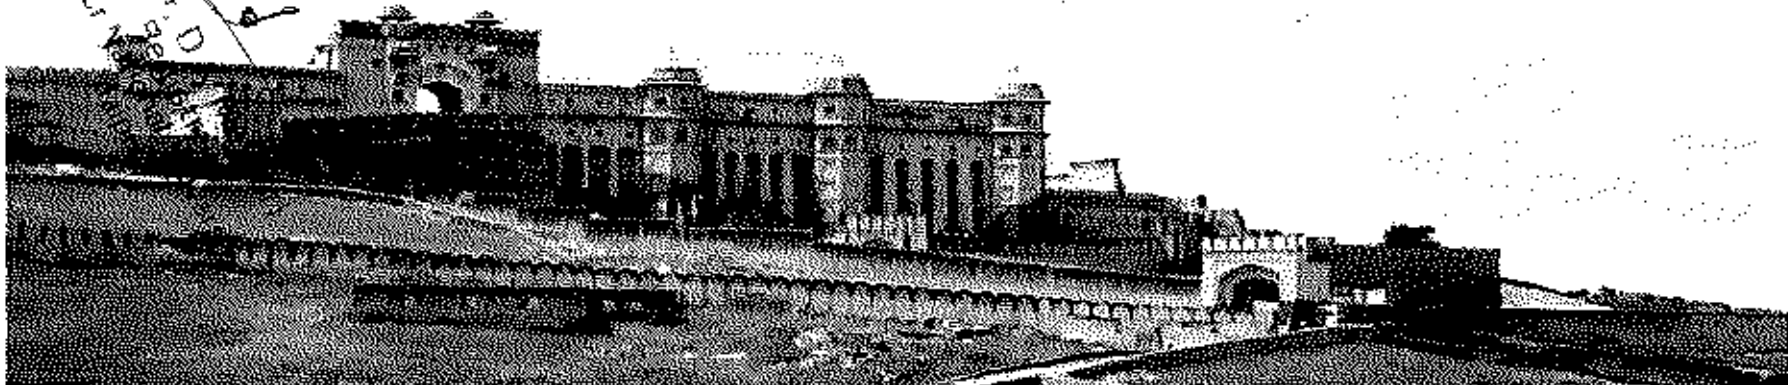

ABOUT THE ORGANIZER Jaipur National University, Jaipur

Jaipur National University was established on 21 October, 2007 through an Ordinance which was subsequently approved by the State Legislature on 29th March, 2008 by an Act of the State. UGC recognized JNU under section 2(f) and empowered to award degrees under section 22 of UGC Act 1956. The University has Four campuses with 16 Schools which imparts education in Engineering & Technology; Commerce & Business Management; Life Sciences; Agriculture; Law & Governance; Computer Science; Medical Sciences; Education; Humanities; Pharmacy; Hotel Management; Nursing and Paramedical Courses which are duly approved by relevant Statutory bodies like AICTE, MCI, NCTE, PCI, NCI, DEB.

The University has large meeting halls in all four campuses for press conferences and for meetings of executive. University has its own medical college and hospital fully equipped with all modern facilities and with best medical staff. The University has guest house, banking facility, cafeteria, Wi-Fi zones and all other amenities. The University is situated in the heart of City, hardly 3 Km from Jagatpura Railway Station, with transport from every corner of Jaipur, proximity to bus stop, railway station, market, malls and multiplexes. Jaipur is well connected by road train and air. UNESCO has declared Jaipur as a tourist city based on its rich cultural heritage. The major tourist attractions are the Amber Fort, the Jal Mahal, Palace, the Hawa Mahal and the world famous Royal Albert Hall.

This walled city is also famous for its delectable Rajasthani cuisine, which can be savoured at places like the Laxmi Mishthan Bhandar, the birthplace of the world famous sweet pancakes called 'Ghevar', "mawa kachori" at Rawat Sweets and Dal, Bati Choorma at all hotels across the city. The world renowned heritage village "Chowki Dhani" is a tourist hotspot. As souvenirs, one can collect the blue pottery near Hawa Mahal, the organic hand block printed fabrics and hand carved "mojaris" at reasonable prices. The pink city is infused with warm hospitality and festive fervor with several comfortable hotels near the Jaipur National University. During March, there will be a pleasant weather.
