

JAIPUR NATIONAL UNIVERSITY, JAIPUR
SCHOOL OF EDUCATION,

Awareness programme on Health and Hygiene for Womens and Children

Jaipur National University has dedicated one week for the celebrations of International Women's Day. Under this programme Volunteers of NSS , School of Education JNU played a Nukkad Natak "Safe Hands" near Axa Masjid, Kareem Nagar to spread the message health and hygiene in the collorabtion with National Science Academy of India (NASI) on 12th March 2020 at 11:30 am.

Students participated-12

(Prof. D. K. Mathur)
Registrar
Jaipur National University
Jaipur

Director, School of Education, Prof. Kamla Vashishth, Research adviser Prof. Rita Arora and our chief guest Prof Pallavi from Sardar Vallabh Patel University, Gujarat give their views on health and hygiene. Ms. Deepshikha Jain Assistant Professor has prepared Nukkad Natak based on various diseases related to health and hygiene.

NSS Programme Officer Prof. Meenu Singh has coordinated the programme.

Refreshment were distributed among the womens and children of concern community.

(Prof. D.K Mathur)
Registrar
Jaipur National University
Jaipur